

Buffaloes Left on Trip to East

Three Games To Be Played: Most Important Games Ever Played by Buffalo Squad

The mighty Buffalo basketball team left this morning on the most important trip ever taken by a team from this area. The Buffs will play in Madison Square Garden in New York City on next Wednesday and at Convention Hall in Philadelphia Jan. 31. The Buffs will play before the largest crowds at these two places in the history of the College.

Another game was added to the schedule. The Buffs will play New York State College at Buffalo, N. Y., on Saturday night of this week.

However the Buffs are now accustomed to appearing before big crowds. They played before 11,000 in Chicago on their trip last week, and before capacity crowds in Oklahoma City during the December tournament.

Coach Al Baggett returned from New York City Tuesday morning. He was invited to a sports writers banquet Saturday night, where he told of the Tallest Team in the World. Coach Baggett flew to New York and back in order to attend this important gathering of sports experts. He was given a warm reception by the writers, and found that all of the eastern daily newspapers are playing up the Buffs in great shape.

One of the leading basketball authorities has picked the Buffs as the greatest team in the nation, and predicts that the tall boys will top the teams of the world at the close of the season.

The Buffs have been working hard in preparation of the trip. The boys are in the finest physical and mental condition for the trip.

Baggett and his boys have made the most favorable impressions wherever they have traveled. The boys are required to wear their best clothes; act like gentlemen on the streets, in the cafes and in their hotel rooms. President J. A. Hill states that he always receives letters of congratulations after the boys return from a trip. The Tall Boys are making a fine record in their play, but also are unusual in leaving a good word for West Texas State because of their gentlemanly actions.

Car Stamps Now on Sale at Local Postoffice—$2.09

The new federal car stamps went on sale in Canyon Monday. Many car owners have bought the new stamps to attach to their windshields.

The new stamps cost $2.09 and are good until June 30, 1942. On July 1 every car must bear the new annual stamp which costs $5.00.

Each car owner who buys a stamp is required to send a postcard to the Collector of Internal Revenue at Dallas giving the name of his car, type, year of manufacture and engine number.

The federal automobile stamps are for sale only at post offices.

No announcement has been made as to the enforcement of the stamp law. Sheriff M. E. Cantrell states that he has received no request for enforcement of the law. It is likely that local peace officers as well as State Highway Patrolmen will be asked to assist in the enforcement of the stamp provision. In view of the fact that all stamp purchasers are required to send postcards giving the description of their car to the Collector of Internal Revenue, a good record of car owners will be available for checking with state officials. It would be very unwise for any car owner to attempt to operate a car without the new federal stamp, since he would be fooling with Uncle Sam in such a case, and Uncle Sam gets hard boiled with law violators.

Leslie Van Meter Is Named Head Coach of Buffalo Football Squad

LESLIE VAN METER

Leslie E. Van Meter was elected football coach of the West Texas State football squad at a meeting of the Athletic Committee last night. Van Meter succeeds Jack Curtice, who has resigned to become head of the Physical Education Department and football coach of the School of Mines.

Van Meter has been assistant to Curtice for the past two years. He played high school football in Kentucky under Curtice. When named head coach two years ago, Curtice brought Van Meter to West Texas State. During the past two years he has been line coach and has scouted most of the teams which were to meet the Buffaloes.

Curtice has called him one of the finest coaches with whom he has ever worked, and highly praised his ability. He is a product of Western Kentucky where he was a star athlete.

President J. A. Hill is high in praise of the new coach.

The team finished second in the Border Conference, and has scheduled a hard season for 1942. Spring training will start next month.

Tax Deadline on Jan. 31st

Payments of All Taxes Must Be Made in Order to Avoid Delinquency: Pay Poll Taxes

Randall county taxpayers have only eight more days in which to settle their tax bill for 1941.

Many property owners took advantage of the liberal discounts which were given during October, November and December. Those who have not made their tax payments must do so by the 31st of January or have their taxes become delinquent.

Poll taxes must be paid before the end of the month. Those who do not make payment by then must pay this tax together with other property taxes. However, poll tax payment must be made before the end of January in order to vote in the elections this year.

"I have given you my best and if you re-elect me to the office for another term I will continue to serve each and every person to the best of my ability.

"I have given almost all of my time to the duties of the office. You who have been closely associated with my work know this to be true, and if re-elected I shall continue to do so.

"I expect to make an active campaign and will try to see each and all of the voters in the precinct before the July primary. I will greatly appreciate your support during the campaign and your vote at the primary," continued Mr. Heath.

No Shortage of Sugar Seen for the Coming Year

There is no shortage of sugar and no indications that the price will be much higher this year, according to statements of grocers. The government has set a ceiling on sugar. While a quota has been set up on sugar, this quota is practically the same that each grocer has sold during the past year.

Wholesalers state that wild rumors have caused many people to buy up sugar which they do not need and thus cause a shortage in the quotas of merchants. All advice against hoarding sugar under present conditions.

Jim Reeves Home Burned Monday Nite

The home of Jim Reeves was completely demolished by fire Monday night. Flames had already covered the house, located on the highway just north of town near Taylor's Store, when the fire department was called.

Cause of the fire is not known.

Armed with a poll tax receipt which has been secured on or before January 31, 1942, you will be able to participate in all elections during the year. Without this receipt you are barred from participating in elections.

Blackout To Be Staged Soon

All Panhandle Black-Out To Be Planned by Sheriffs, City and County Officials

A Panhandle-wide blackout is being planned for the near future. Sheriff M. E. Cantrell, Mayor C. H. Jarrett and Judge A. H. Hunt have been notified that officers of the Panhandle will meet in Amarillo in a few days to plan for this blackout test.

Trains, busses, cars will be stopped. All business houses and residents must be prepared for a complete blackout. Power plants will not be shut down because of the necessity of having power available for radio directions and to keep necessary machinery moving.

Sheriff Cantrell states that more information will be available in a few days.

The telephone office is the only public building which has been equipped for a complete blackout.

One Jury Case Is Tried This Term of Court

One jury case has been tried in the winter term of District Court. The session will end Saturday.

The case of Bob Carter vs. Texas-New Mexico Utilities Co. was tried Monday and Tuesday. The jury returned a verdict of $2,500 damages yesterday afternoon. Carter's son was knocked down by a live wire at one of the light standards in August, 1940. Notice of appeal was given. The jury was discharged for the session.

The grand jury met yesterday, returning one indictment and adjourning for the session.

A divorce was granted the plaintiff in the case of Essie Pearl Haug vs. Gottlieb Haug.

Hardware Convention to Meet Monday

The 33rd Annual Convention of the Panhandle Hardware and Implement Association will be held in Amarillo Monday and Tuesday of next week.

The program for the convention was issued this week by C. L. Thompson who has been secretary of the association for more than 20 years. From all indications this will be one of the best conventions in the history of the association.

The News delivered the program of 68 pages to the secretary this week.

Corn Borers Will Get Roasting Ears

Every one who expects to grow any corn this year, either for roasting ears or pig feed, should be interested in killing the corn stalk borers that are now wintering over in the old corn stubble.

Recent examinations in old corn stalks near Canyon reveals that enough of these pests are going through the winter to reinfest a much larger acreage this year.

Winter is the control time for the reason that the borer spends the winter in the larva stage in a small hollow which he makes for himself in the very bottom of the corn stubble. Here he spends the cold winter months in a state of hibernation and starts to dig out when the ground is warm in the spring.

To kill the borer it is only necessary to expose his winter home to the sunshine any time after the first freeze in the fall, and before the last hard freeze of the winter. This can be done easily by plowing out the corn stubble with a lister, or in the case of small gardens, just pulling up the old stalks. If the stubble is exposed to the sunshine after the borers go into hibernation, they will become active and will then be destroyed by frost the first real cold night. They will withstand sub-zero temperature if they remain below ground in a state of hibernation, but will not live thru the winter if the stubble is exposed on top of the ground.

In the case of borers wintering in the corn stubble left in gardens the best way is to pull up by hand all the stalks and then after drying burn the stubble. It will do very little or no good to burn the stalks unless the stubble is still attached since the borers are in the very bottom of the stalks well below the ground.

It is easy to check for the presence of these pests by pulling up a few old corn stalks where holes show above ground and split the stalk all the way to the bottom and look carefully for a white larva nearly an inch long in the center of the stalk at the very bottom end.

We could easily control, or greatly reduce the damage done by this pest, if everyone who has any corn stubble would destroy them in their winter quarters. This should be done in January if possible, where a lister is used, in order to have time for both a warm spell and a hard freeze before spring.

Conditions were very favorable for corn production in 1941 because of excess moisture. Many small fields made good yields in spite of the borers. If we do not destroy the present crop of borers we will need another wet season to produce corn in several places in Randall county.

Damage from borers can be partially offset by planting early maturing varieties and by using hybrid seed corn.

County Attorney Resigns Tuesday: Barker Is Named

J. D. BARKER

J. D. BARKER

Randall county has a new County Attorney. The Commissioners Court received the resignation of J. D. Hazlewood Tuesday and elected J. D. Barker to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Hazlewood.

Mr. Hazlewood has accepted a position with the Texas Employers Insurance Association and will move to Amarillo next week to assume his new position. He has been County Attorney for six years.

Mr. Barker was County Attorney for six years, being succeeded by Mr. Hazlewood. He assumed office yesterday and will look after the county's business in this capacity.

J. R. Hand has started work on a new residence at 2111 Fourth Avenue. The residence will be 22x23 feet, with five rooms.

Baptist Church Has Training Union

The First Baptist Church of Canyon held an enlargement campaign and study course for its Training Union last week directed by Miss Nella Casement of Dallas. Five books were taught with 191 people enrolling during the week and nearly 140 awards being granted for completion of the study and examination of the books.

Four new departmental organizations were begun and five new unions organized, making a total of fifteen unions in this service which meets an hour before the Sunday evening preaching services and offers a program for every age group.

A goal of 200 was set for attendance last Sunday night and there were 203 present, which sets a new high record for the local congregation. Claude W. White is the general director of this phase of the Baptist work in Canyon.

Bargain Rates Will End January 31

The Canyon News has extended Bargain Days until January 31st. The subscription rate for The News in Randall and adjoining counties is $1.00 per year up to Jan. 31. Outside this territory the rate is $1.50 per year.

Starting February 1st, the rate in Randall and adjoining counties will be $1.50 per year; and the rate will be $2.00 per year for all points outside the above territory.

The price of producing a newspaper is soaring. The News must raise its subscription rates in order to meet a part of this increase.

Notices have been sent to all subscribers whose time is expiring, and those who do not renew by Jan. 31 must be dropped from the subscription list.

The News hopes that no one will be dropped as a result of having failed to send in their renewal.

Large Number to Buy Regularly

R. H. Wright Wants All to Sign Up Who Will Pledge to Buy Bond Monthly

R. H. Wright, county chairman of the Defense Bond campaign, reports that the Bond-a-Month Club is growing rapidly.

Randall county has a quota of $243,000 in Stamps and Bonds to be sold during 1942.

Mr. Wright is asking all citizens who will buy bonds regularly to sign the list which he has at the First National Bank.

Many citizens have bought bonds during the past few months, some at regular intervals and others when they had money available. The government asks that every citizen make a special effort to buy with regularity in order that money will flow into the Defense program as it is needed for munitions.

Mr. Wright hopes to have at least 100 on the list by Saturday night who will buy bonds every month.

Daylight Saving In Reverse For Plains Section

Daylight saving will become a national law on February 9 under the terms of a bill signed Tuesday by President Roosevelt.

Clocks will be run ahead one hour over the entire nation.

This will cause considerable confusion in the Panhandle due to the fact that this section is on the western border of Central time.

After a survey of the situation, West Texas State authorities have decided to postpone classes one hour, and in reality will observe the same daylight as now used. If this was not done, classes would start before daylight, thus causing more power to be used. The lunch hour will be from 1 to 2 o'clock.

It is believed that this new schedule will be generally adopted in Canyon, as few people will be stirring around an hour before daylight just for the purpose of kidding themselves that they are saving light.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Democracy is the poorest government in the world in which to build a military machine. Citizens of a Democracy have other things to think about. They have higher ambitions than to steal from their neighbors and to kill those with whom they do not agree. But let the people of a Democracy get mad, and they are willing to fight to the last man for the principles of government which are dear to their hearts. In other days handing a man a gun and telling him to defend his home and loved ones was sufficient. Today wars are mechanized. Mechanization has brought about the necessity of highly trained men. Regardless of your patriotism, you cannot become an airman or a tank operator, or a machine gunner over night. All of these things require months of training. There is a great rush of men into all branches of service now that the little brown devils have warred on our nation. But the men who are entering the service today will not be ready to fight for several months. Had not President Roosevelt been sufficiently informed as to the dangers of war and started to build an army through Selective Service 18 months ago, the United States today would be an easy prey to the dictators. As matters stand today, those men who entered the armed service in the early stages of Selective Service must do the fighting and assist in training the new army until such a time as it is prepared to enter the combat. Again, as in 1917-18 our Democracy shows its military weakness largely because Democracy stands for peace rather than useless and senseless warfare.

with their delivery problems. Some thoughtless people make silly delivery requests of business houses every day and pile up delivery costs. In practically every town in the nation deliveries are now limited to two per day and usually citizens are required to buy $1.00 or more before a delivery will be made. We have heard of unthoughtful persons in Canyon asking grocers to make four or five deliveries daily on items which retail for not more than 10c or 15c. The merchant loses money on every such delivery, and the householder could have bunched all these purchases into one delivery. Those who like to cause merchants such unnecessary delivery expense may find themselves walking after their purchases when the delivery trucks and casings wear out.

The News cannot help being skeptical at many of the reports which come out of Berlin about Hitler firing so many generals and that unrest has increased to such extent in all of the conquered countries. There are no American correspondents in Berlin to put out these reports. Most of these reports are put out for the purpose of lulling the allies to sleep. Sure enough, the Russians are giving the Germans hell; and the English are mopping up the Wops and Huns in Africa; but Hitler still has the greatest war machine on earth, and will continue to have it until America hits full production in 1943. It's okay to be elated over the fine progress of the Allies, but do not expect a sudden collapse of the Axis in the near future.

Signs are being erected over Randall county warning people to be careful about grass fires. All land owners are urged to burn tumble weeds which are along their fences, but to use the greatest care that the fires do not spread to the pasture lands. It would be mighty easy to start a grass fire which would burn thousands of acres of fine grass in this country. A little carelessness might start the fire which would destroy feed for thousands of cattle. Farmers and ranchmen are careful with matches and cigarettes. Townspeople who drive into the country should be unusually careful. Every acre of grass is needed for the stock which is in this country.

Many people are very patriotic so long as it costs them nothing. But when they are asked to help with the Red Cross and buy Defense Bonds, they are willing for the other patriotic folks to support the boys at the front. It is well to remember that at Wake Island the Marines did not ask what per cent they should give. They gave everything they had without hesitation. Those of us who are privileged to remain at home must take our cue from those Americans who are on the battle line on several fronts, and give everything we have to win this war. If we do not win this war, certainly nothing that we now have will be worth anything.

Argentina has been the strongest holdout against a United America, and in favor of Hitlerism. The other weak American nations know that they would be easy prey to Hitler in case of invasion of the Americas. It seems foolish for a weak nation like Argentina to stand against unity. However, behind the scene it would seem that our South American brothers are hard traders, and they are willing to take Uncle Sam to a good country skinning before signing up for a solid Hemisphere. Even being skinned a little is preferable to allowing Hitler to find a landing place in South America.

Millions of Americans will have to pay an income tax for the first time this year. The brackets have been dropped so as to include many men and women who have not been called upon in the past to pay this tax. Those who are fortunate enough to hold jobs which pay them a sufficient wage to call for an income tax payment should be happy to pay their part of this vast war-time program. Supporting a government in which all men and women are free to work in an unmolested manner is a great and grand privilege.

Farmers are warned that unless they repair their farm machinery NOW that they may not be able to get repairs when harvest comes. This is not a scheme of the manufacturers or the dealers to get farmers to buy in advance. There is a real threat of national shortage of farm machinery and repairs, and if farmers are not prepared when harvest comes your dealers can do nothing about it. Prepare now for the emergency which is certain to come this summer.

Hal Collins, wealthy Mineral Wells hotel owner, wants to run for the U. S. Senate. He indicates his willingness to even run against his former warm friend, Senator O'Daniel. Perhaps this friendship is weakened considerably since Collins was forced out of the race last year by O'Daniel. Collins is a severe critic of the Roosevelt administration and does lots of talking about his opposition.

All car owners now have a new tax to pay. You must pay a new federal operating tax. The cost is $2.09 from February 1st until June 30. Stamps are on sale at the post-office. On July 1st you must have the annual stamp affixed to your car, and the cost will be $5.00 per car. When you drive an automobile you are helping finance the war in a big way.

In past years merchants have given away much of their profits by giving free fancy wrappings for gifts. This will probably not be the case when the present supply runs out. Many of these items cannot be had, and prices are advancing so rapidly that merchants cannot afford giving wrappings except on expensive items.

John Lewis advocates peace in labor ranks. Wonder if old John has become patriotic, or read the handwriting on the wall. He probably realizes that labor has secured all that he can get without the danger of losing all of the present advantages. We still cannot believe very much in the patriotism of old John.

Churchill is home after his conference in Washington with President Roosevelt. The fact that Churchill was able to leave London twice for conferences with the President indicates very forcefully that Hitler's air and undersea crafts are not functioning as successfully as in the past.

Dollar-a-year men are under fire in Washington. It has been found that too many of these men who were loaned to the government by big corporations are still representing their companies, rather than looking after the welfare of the government.

The air crashes of the past week have been terrible, and the loss of life is shocking. However, this nation is slaughtering more people in car wrecks than we have been losing at the battle fronts—and very little is said or done about it.

Precautions About Handling NATURAL GAS

In Case Of Air-Raid Alarms!

Natural gas is the safest fuel you could be using during an air raid. BUT, the HANDLING of natural gas is a technical matter, requiring the services of trained men who know how to avoid the hazards involved.

It is therefore extremely important that everyone should study and follow the carefully prepared instructions relating to the handling of natural gas during air raid alarms. If these instructions are not followed, serious consequences may result. Untrained persons should not attempt to turn gas off and on at the meters.

Following are the official instructions which have been approved and adopted by local Office of Civilian Defense. They are simple. Read them carefully. Discuss them in the family circle so all will understand. Cut them out and post them where all can see them. Above all, follow them!

In Case Of An Air-Raid Alarm:

1. Make no attempt to shut off the gas at the meter.
2. Simply turn off all burners which you customarily turn on and off. Do not turn off pilot lights.
3. Only in case the house or building is badly damaged should the gas be turned off at the meter.
4. If, for any reason, the gas is turned off at the meter, do not turn it on again yourself. Call for a trained man.

National Defense and Your Automobile!

It has been necessary to restrict the sale of new cars and new tires because of the shortage of rubber. Therefore, your present automobile is playing an important part in National Defense. It must serve you a long time in order that your efficiency will not be impaired while our great automotive plants are turning out bombers and tanks and guns for our armed forces.

Your part in this plan is to make your car . . . and your tires . . . give trouble-free service for just as many miles as possible.

A few simple rules will add materially to the life of your car and tires. Avoid excessive speeds—drive carefully to eliminate costly accidents—have your car serviced regularly—employ only the most competent mechanics—keep your tires properly inflated, and interchange them on the wheels of your car every 5000 miles.

By protecting your car, you help to free the automobile plants for war production . . . but funds are also necessary to keep their production lines rolling. Here, again, the responsibility is yours. Buy Defense Bonds and Stamps regularly, in the very largest denominations which conservative living habits will permit.

Never Late for Work in 28 Years—That's Record of J. S. Harrison

Imagine, if you can, a man who is 5 feet, 5 inches tall, but who stands so straight he seems taller—a man who weighs 123 pounds, who wears size five shoes, an old black hat, a Marshall Foch-type mustache, and heavy rimmed spectacles, and you're close to seeing J. S. Harrison of the college maintenance department.

Mr. Harrison has celebrated 67 birthdays, and the last 28 of them have come while he has been an employee of West Texas State.

Ten years ago, a writer in The Prairie said of him, "During the eighteen years that he has been in the employ of the college, he has not been off the job as long as twelve months. For the past five years, he has not been absent a day, and he cannot recall having been late."

A day or so ago, after Mr. Harrison had completed his 28th year with the college, he said, "So far as I know, I have never been late to work. I have had one two-week vacation, and I haven't minded not having more. I feel like a fish out of water when I am not somewhere on the campus."

When asked if he had ever been ill, Mr. Harrison replied:

"I don't suppose I've been away from work, because I was sick, over 200 days at the most. I have never missed a pay day."

Then, with a chuckle, he added: "That's a little funny too. I came to Texas 39 years ago, after my family doctor had told me that I couldn't live more than a year."

"Uncle Johnny," as he is affectionately called by several of the girls who have lived in his home while attending school, is a sober, quiet man who goes about his business with little to say. Yet, when one can induce him to talk, he hears many interesting things about the college that happened "in the days when."

He tells about the time when he spent most of his hours in what is now the practice house used by the band. He wasn't blowing a horn, but he was tending the pumps that pulled water from the two wells under the building.

"I remember one time," he said soberly, "when Bob Donald, the late R. A. Terrill, and I were hanging the curtain in the auditorium, about 1916. We were working on a twenty-foot scaffold, and Mr. Terrill fainted. Bob and I had to carry him down a flimsy ladder to keep him from falling to the floor."

He laughs when he tells about the hundreds of freshmen boys who have been sent to him asking for left-hand monkey wrenches, round squares, or milk cap stretchers.

When Mr. Harrison was complimented for his punctuality, he said:

"Well, I always figured that if I sold a man my time, I shouldn't turn around and steal it back from him by being late. Then, too, Agnes—that's my wife—has always been a stickler for seeing to it that I wasn't late."

And, since Mr. Harrison now has charge of the heating systems in Randall Hall, Stafford Hall, and the museum, the students are warmly glad that he isn't ever late.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Banks Monday were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hestand of Spring Lake.

Visitors of Mrs. C. N. Harrison Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Harrison, Jr., of Amarillo.

Misses Charlyne Drake and Dora Mae Richards of Plainview visited here Tuesday with friends.

Military Drill Is Opened to All Local Citizens

Little interest has been shown by Canyon men, other than college students, in the military science course being given at West Texas State College under the direction of Lt. Reeves Donnell.

The course is open to every man living here, and it may be used for college credit by paying a minimum fee and going through Dean R. P. Jarrett's office. There is no charge for the instruction to those who do not wish the course for college credit, or those who are already enrolled in West Texas State.

"Seemingly many of the boys have the wrong conception of the course," said Lt. Donnell. "Some are afraid that taking of the course will cause them to be called into service sooner, but this is not true."

By taking this work, men may remain in school and receive national defense training at the same time. "It's really worth a lot to the fellows," Donnell stated. "And I think their place is to stay here in school and continue their work until drafted."

"If they have finished their school work and taken the military course three months and then called into service, they will be able to show up so much above the average recruit. Then they may be given opportunity to go to an officer's training school or to assume the duties of a non-commissioned officer."

There are now 60 men enrolled in the drill, but Donnell believes there should be at least 100, including town men. Drill is held each Monday and Friday night at 7 o'clock in the gymnasium of the education building at the college. The south entrance to the building is left open.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Next Sunday will be set aside in the Presbyterian Church as annual Young People's Day, at which time the young people themselves will share in a program of recognition throughout the day. The day will be opened by members of the Tuxis Class for high school young people who will have charge of the worship service at Sunday School.

The theme for the morning worship service will be "Youth and Freedom." The evening worship service will be entirely in charge of the young people, under the direction of M. L. Simpson, Jr., president of the Westminster Student Association for college young people. At the Christian Endeavor hour immediately preceding evening worship, Miss Grace Adams will complete the review of the book "This Is the Victory" for the college young people and Merle Dickerson will lead the high school group with the topic "Youth and the Church."

At the meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary on next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. A. Biggers, members of the Guild will be guests. Mrs. John Olson of Hereford, president of the Amarillo Presbyterian Missionary Society, will also be a guest for this occasion. Mrs. Alfred M. Dorsett will review the play "Watch On the Rhine."

The annual Seminar for Presbyterian ministers in the Synod of Texas will be held in Dallas beginning Wednesday of next week. Mr. Dorsett and C. N. Wylie from Canyon will be joined by a number of other ministers from the Panhandle and will attend the meeting.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. McIntire were Mr. and Mrs. George Stambaugh of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Warren went to Fort Worth Sunday to attend market week.

Sailor Leaves Barnett In Brig

Amateurs To Compete Tonight

Barnett Assumes Teaching Duties

Harold Barnett, new Canyon High School band director, assumed his duties last Monday morning in teaching band, mathematics and social science.

Mr. Barnett, who has taught for the past fifteen years in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, has an outstanding record in the teaching profession.

Graduating from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Musical Education, he started his career. Since then, he has studied for two summers and expects to get his Master's degree from West Texas State College.

During the last year, he has been employed in Amarillo by Myers Music Mart as a brass teacher and piano salesman.

He has played solo and first chair cornet in Colver Stockton College Orchestra, in the Amarillo Philharmonic Orchestra, in the Amarillo Municipal Band, a Defense Band and in the University of Missouri Orchestra.

Mr. Barnett has had two student twirlers to place first in national contests and three, to place second. A trumpet trio under his direction won first in state for four years. Mr. Barnett's drum and bugle corps at Lawrence, Kansas, won the Mid-West Championship in 1940.

Eagles Lose Game To Floydada

The offensive and defensive clockwork of the Floydada Whirlwind swept the Canyon Eagles off their feet by a score of 37-22 in a practice game, Thursday, January 5.

Coached by Floyd Murry, former Eagle coach, the Floydada Quintet showed superb ability in checking the Canyonites as they demonstrated several plays worked out by Coach Wesley Cox.

"Although the Eagles were defeated, the boys exhibited excellent playing form and good sportsmanship," said Coach Cox.

James "Speedy" Wright, scoring ten points, was high point man and Al Hunter was next with six points.

During the first quarter, the Whirlwinds whirled away from the Eagles with the score of 2-12.

However, in the next one, the Coxmen tightened up and sank three goals, which made the score 8-12 at the half.

The last half saw the Eagles overrun by the final score of 22-37.

Why deprive people the innocent pleasure of tobacco? This can be answered in definite terms. Not only does tobacco give people a certain "lift" but it drastically hinders them physically. This pleasure they receive from the nicotine in a smoke is the same sort of pleasure derived from cocaine, heroin and marijuana.

Nicotine leaps straight to the heart's circulatory system and contracts the capillaries and arteries, thus giving more for the heart to do by having to pull the blood through these shrunken blood vessels.

From the nicotine, carbon monoxide, ammonia, carbolic acid, pyridine, hydrochloric acid and excessive heat comes indigestion, headaches, nose and throat infections, blackened teeth, bronchial tube infection, a chronic "tired" feeling and lowered resistance to colds. Nicotine most strongly affects vitality, shortens life and makes a dangerous nervous energy.

In a survey recently made from 100,000 heavy smokers, it was found that 53,774 die before they are 60. Whenever nerves, muscles, heart and brain are called in for supreme effort, the tobacco-user is the first to fold. If one smokes a pack a day, he will inhale 400 milligrams of nicotine a week—enough to kill him instantly if taken in a single dose.

Heavy smoking is sometimes a disease symptom. Most people consider it a common place social habit, but usually there is some physical sign of mental deficiency to back regular smoking. When this deficiency is corrected, the urge for smoking sometimes dies.

Besides routine business, the membership chairman reported four new subscriptions.

Those attending were Mesdames Andy Walsh, W. L. Price, Ross Craig, James Jennings, W. T. Hall, Roscoe Davis, Stella Murrell, Pete Harter, DuBois Walker, J. A. Wiseman.

Mesdames J. F. Dickson, George I. Taylor, P. L. Walters, J. B. Speer, Elzie Price, C. A. Higdon, L. M. Cousins, Rhome Mobley.

Anita Davis and Ermin Winningham have completed 60 mimeographed copies of a night gown pattern to be used in the Red Cross room. These were made with the mimeograph machine in the grade school.

The Eagle's Tale

"The boys have worked hard and deserve these awards," declared Coach Wesley Cox, as each letterman received his football award in a special assembly Tuesday morning, at 11:40 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Because of the absence of Dr. R. A. Neblett, president of the school board, Superintendent J. B. Speer, after presenting the awards to the boys, thanked the pep squad, drum corps and band for their support in the past season.

First-year lettermen who received jackets were Raymond Graves, Wayne Wirt, Robert Avent, Jo Carol Dutton, Billy Gano, Billy Ray Boling, Lindsey Taylor, Bobbie Dowd and Roland Hicks. Gordon Lynn Dickerson received a jacket for his services as manager this year.

C. L. Roberts and Lewis Hales, second-year lettermen, bought sweaters; and James Wright and Jack Farley bought jackets. Second-year lettermen who received "C's" were Billy Brown, Al Hunter, and Dick Woods. Coach Cox was presented with a jacket in behalf of his tireless efforts.

After pledging allegiance to the flag, the students, led by Olin Huff, sang "God Bless America" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Canyon School Teachers Vary Regular Schedule with Tea

Thirty minutes of faculty fun was had last Monday afternoon when the teachers gathered in the home-making department for gossip and refreshments.

Sandwiches, punch and cookies were served to the other faculty members by Miss Rose Parsley, Mrs. Carl T. York, Mrs. L. T. Barksdale, Loyd Devin and Miss Helen Whiteside, host and hostesses for the gathering.

New Equipment Will Give Girls Variety of Sports

New equipment to be used in the girls' physical education classes has been received by Miss Helen Whiteside.

"The equipment will be used to give the girls a wider knowledge on a variety of sports and to acquaint them with the sports," said Miss Whiteside.

Elliott Gives Up Band for Bugle

Bugler Expects Training First in Great Lakes

Being changed from band director of an "ornery" group of students to the romantic position of first class bugler on one of Uncle Sam's battleships has caused Dwight Elliott to decide that life is still full of exciting episodes.

Mr. Elliott, an Uncle Sam enlistee, was scheduled to report for his last physical examination, Monday at the naval recruiting office in Dallas. Mr. Elliott did not have definite information regarding his preliminary training, but he was expecting to be sent either to San Diego or the Great Lakes.

"I've had a swell time teaching in Canyon and enjoyed it immensely. Not only have the kids been grand and co-operative to work with but also the entire faculty, Principal J. F. Dickson and Superintendent J. B. Speer. I should enjoy hearing from anybody and should be glad to write back."

Mr. Elliott was from Amarillo and graduated from the Oklahoma University with a music major. He taught in Freedom, Oklahoma two years before coming to Canyon.

Girls Will Learn Home Nursing

Boys and Girls Classes Will Aid Uncle Sam's Forces

Wishing to do its part in the defense campaign which is sweeping the country, the homemaking department of Canyon High School is offering a course in girls' home nursing next semester.

The women's auxiliary which is to be organized will need approximately two thousand nurses' aids. Nurses from all over our country are being called to army centers. This means our communities will not have adequate numbers of nurses. The object of this course is not to train nurses but to give the average girl practical training in nursing.

Course Includes First Aid
The probable outline of this course is personal and public health, four weeks; home care of the sick, nine weeks; first aid, four weeks.

This course will count one-half credit toward high school graduation and one-half credit for college entrance.

Parsley or Clark To Teach

The home nursing class, which is to be offered either the third or the fifth period, will be taught by either Miss Rose Parsley or Miss Lila Clark.

Miss Parsley, who has been teaching a boys' homemaking class the past semester plans to continue the class next semester.

Boys' Course To Improve Students
There is a shortage of cooks and hospital aids in the army, and many colleges are giving courses on these subjects to boys. The object of this course is not to train boys for the army but to teach boys to be better members of home and community in peace and defense.

One-Half Credit Given For Course
The general outline being followed in the boys' class is nutrition and cooking eleven weeks; first aid, six weeks.

This course gives one-half credit for high school graduation and one-half credit for college entrance.

Thirty-nine new books on biography, fiction, science, plays and drama have been added to the library.

Donkeys---Dan Usery---Hobby

"Every time I see a donkey, I think of Dan Usery," said two Canyon tourists while they were shopping for donkeys for their friends. "This one with the long ears and braying is just perfect for his collection."

Two years ago this Christmas, Mr. Usery received two Mexican onyx donkeys as a gift from a friend. After trying without success to give them to his family, he concluded that collecting donkeys probably would be an enjoyable pastime. This has proved true, not only to him but to his family and friends. Mr. Usery is the linotype operator for The Canyon News and sets the type for The Eagle's Tale.

Many thoughtful friends have boosted the total number of donkeys in Mr. Usery's collection to 75. Coming from Panama, Haiti, Mexico, California, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Colorado and New Mexico, his donkeys have outgrown the two shelves Mr. Usery made for them and now are crowding the third shelf which he found necessary to construct.

Simple arrangements did not satisfy Mr. Usery, since he has completed two pack trains in descending sizes. Adding variety to his collection are donkeys to be worn as decorative pins and donkeys varying from one-half inch to six inches, placed on stands.

Outstanding beauty even in a donkey is exhibited in his Panama model. Standing on a silver base, its long red ears are in rhythmic design.

Opposite from the Panama model, the Haiti donkey is valuable because of its crudeness. Plainly visible is the handwork of the natives.

Speer Addresses Student Body Friday On National Preparedness and Unity

"Robinson Crusoe was a free man until his man Friday came along," began Superintendent J. B. Speer in an address to the assembly Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

"I appreciate you students more than ever before. I appreciate you because a man told me in the office that you students are taking the war situation more seriously than the towns people are. The Defense Stamps sale has reached the total of $160 since January 6.

Band Plays In Assembly

Realizing that they were playing for the last time under the direction of Dwight Elliott, members of the Eagle Band performed with utmost precision in the rendition of "Brass Buttons," "Dinah," and "Over There." Mr. Elliott was called to the stage and presented a leather traveling kit on behalf of the band, Principal J. F. Dickson and Superintendent J. B. Speer.

In expressing his gratitude, Mr. Elliott said, "I have enjoyed my year with the students and faculty and especially thank Mr. Dickson and Mr. Speer for the kindness shown me. The farewell number of the band was "Cheerio."

Managers Give Speeches

Campaign speeches by Clarence Thompson, Joe Ziegler, Shirley Harrell and Charles Owens for candidates for president and vice-president of the Student Faculty Congress climaxed the assembly program.

The following names will appear next Friday on the ballot to be voted on by the student body: Gordon Lynn Dickerson, senior, and John James Harter, junior, for president; Polly Winstead, junior, and Dick Woods, junior, for vice-president.

Uncle Sam Needs Trained Workers

Attention to mid-term graduates! Uncle Sam is in dire need of specially trained men in certain essential industries and for reserve officers. Those students who are graduating and are interested in engineering, science and management should go directly into college because of the immediate emergency.

In the same manner, many graduates should sacrifice their holidays and begin school at once.

Many colleges are making it possible to complete the regular four-year engineering curriculum in three years or three or four summers. This does not reduce the requirements for a degree, but it will make men available for jobs at an earlier date from the Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges.

Those eligible for Reserve Officers' Training Corps contracts will receive commissions one year earlier. Students who enter college immediately after graduation from high school will now be able to complete their college education before reaching military service age.

A freshman class will be started each semester. Registration will begin January 24 and close February 9.

Student Congress Nominates Four Students for Offices

The Student Faculty Congress met Wednesday, January 14, to nominate students for offices of the organization.

Those nominated for president are Gordon Lynn Dickerson and John James Harter.

For vice-president, Dick Woods and Pauline Winstead were nominated.

"The polls will be open all day Friday, January 23, for voting," said Principal J. F. Dickson.

Papers and Pens Are Fad in Canyon High

Books, papers and pens will be the fad for the next two weeks that precede the mid-term examinations. The fateful day begins Thursday, January 29.

The examinations are scheduled as follows:

First period classes—Thursday—9-10:30
Second Period classes—Thursday—10:30-12:00
Third Period classes—Thursday—1:00-2:30
Fourth Period classes—Thursday—2:30-4:00
Fifth Period Classes—Friday—9:00-10:30
Sixth Period Classes—Friday—10:30-12:00.

FHT Club Leads Panel Discussion

Adequate Meal Plans Is Topic of Discussion

"What does the average homemaker need to know to plan adequate meals?" asked Shirley Harrell as she directed the panel discussion at the Parent-Teachers Association Study Club yesterday afternoon in the homemaking laboratory.

"The average homemaker doesn't figure out the number of calories for each individual person in her family," affirmed Martha Jean Dowd. "Therefore, the Homemaking Bureau of Texas has prepared a chart for her aid, giving the number of calories and value of each food required for the day."

Carolyn Black reported that the age, health and occupation of the person greatly affected the daily diet.

"To fully enjoy a meal, one must eat in a happy environment," informed Loyce Gipson while Georgia Faye Holt admitted that food habits affect one's digestion and enjoyment of a meal.

This panel was planned as a conclusion of the food unit by the third-year homemaking girls.

Martha Hannah Hammond, Barbara Michael, Genevieve Sullivan and Christine Kellum prepared menus and recipes which were handed to the parents present.

Cardinals Evade Eagle Onslaught

In spite of the Canyon Eagle's onslaught, the Price Memorial Cardinals pounded out a decisive victory by a score of 30-18, Friday night.

George Black Sparked the Eagles' second-string scorers, when he tallied seven of the 15 points that defeated the Cardinals' second-stringers 15-14.

Al Hunter and Wayne Wirt, each scoring five points, tied for high point man of the first-string game. At the end of the first quarter, the Eagles were leading 8-6; however the Cardinals took and kept the lead in the second quarter.

James "Speedy" Wright was unable to play because of an injured foot.

Mrs. K. L. Kirkland substituted Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for Coach Wesley Cox, who was away on business. Malley Chisholm, West Texas State physical education major, taught the afternoon classes during Mr. Cox's absence.

Sweetheart

Winning by a small majority, Fern Zimmer was elected Sweetheart of the F. F. A. Chapter, Friday at noon. "Her opponents, Peggy Bishir and Shirley Harrell," Loyd Devin remarked, "ran a close race. I think we had exceptional nominees and have chosen a good sweetheart."

A new phase in the activities of the Chapter is the buying of United States Defense Stamps and Bonds.

Mr. Devin said, "The boys have voted to set their goal for the year at $260 in Stamps and Bonds. They also voted to give their consent for the area to invest $300 of area funds in Defense Bonds."

"That will be an estimated 10 cents per member each week. We are filling out a report to send to the area supervisor now," Mr. Devin concluded.

Harris Brown was elected second vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by Blake Zachry dropping Agriculture.

Stop, look and listen! If Dick and Dub Woods would pay more attention to the fundamental rules of safety instead of the girls, they might not get shaken up so badly physically. Last Wednesday night, Dick and Dub were limping because they didn't "jump" when the car said "mouse."

Whether they were conserving their car tires or reducing their avoidpous, we do not know, but Olin Huff and Superintendent J. B. Speer have taken up riding their bicycles to school. Hope that they accomplish their purpose.

The sophomores seem to be having heart troubles. Of course, we haven't been sure about Lindsey, Molly Nan, Eugene, or Georgia Faye for quite a while; even Mary Alice and Bobby are not very dependable. The only pair getting along now without any trouble are Charles and Juanita. At least Juanita isn't having much trouble.

Leroy Wooten and his new flame, Anita Davis, stepped out for the first time last Friday night. We hope it goes through and doesn't burn out SO SOON.

Where did Jess Armstrong get his black eye! It has not been publicly announced, but it surely was a "dilly"—more than a girl could give him.

Something is all wrong. Alvin Finn and Bobby Dowd were married by the honorable Judge Georgia Faye Holt last Monday night at the sophomore party. Woe! Where were some girls? Bobby looked pitiful in a veil.

Seen skating, mostly on themselves, Monday night were Evelyn Black, Shirley Ann Newberry, Ruth Price, Geraldine Franklin and several of our college friends.

Eagle Cagemen Will Battle Strong Friona Chieftains

With the hopes of surpassing their 37-29 defeat made at the last tilt, the Eagle cagemen of Canyon High School again will battle the Friona Chieftains on their home court Tuesday, January 27.

Eddie Williams' quintet of Friona is termed as one of the strongest teams in the district, since they heralded the Dimmitt Tournament victory over Price Memorial College.

Wayne Wirt, center, Speedy Wright and Clarence Thompson, forwards, Jack Farley and Calvin Sanders, guards, probably will be the starting line-up.

Three Judges To Render Decisions

Harp Will Award Cash Prizes for Contests

Bringing their talents before the public eye, a group of Canyon's amateurs will perform on the stage of Canyon High School's auditorium tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Three unbiased persons will render decisions for the four contests sponsored by The Eagle's Tale. James Harp, editor, acting as master of ceremonies, will award the cash prizes in each division.

Entries from the grade school will compose the first contest, after which high school students will compete. A contest for college students and outsiders will climax the individual participation, and a contest in which groups of four or more will perform will round out the program.

Forty-four non-professionals have made entries in the three individual contests.

No restrictions were placed on the participants who were exempt from the admission price of 10 cents for grade school and high school students and 20 cents for adults.

The public is cordially invited to attend the program, which will include singing, card tricks, instrumental solos, tumbling, readings, jokes and impersonations.

Under the direction of Olin Huff, Juanita Anderson, Georgia Faye Holt and Molly Nan Ziegler planned the games suitable for the occasion.

Room mothers, Mrs. A. H. Simon, Mrs. C. P. Anderson and Mrs. A. B. Holt, prepared punch, cookies and sandwiches.

Those attending the party were as follows: Veta Roberts, Billie Hales, Helen Joe Cox, Leslie Gordon, Loyd Bonds, Gwen Sullivan, Gwendolyn Phillips, Billy Jane Bonifield, J. Ray Hunter, Juanita Anderson, Eugene Bonds and Douglas Walker.

Betty Harwood, Katherine Davenport, Blake Zachry, Merle Dickerson, Bill Drummond, Georgia Faye Holt, Manis Foster, Charles SoRelle, Bobby Lyons, Molly Nan Ziegler, Wynema Robbins, Billy Bible, Lowell Johnson, Lindsey Taylor, Bobby Dowd, Mary Alice Campbell, Alvin Fenn.

Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Simon and Mr. Huff were the chaperones attending.

Faculty Entertains U. S. Navy Lad

Members of the Canyon High School and Grade School Faculty honored Dwight Elliott, band director, who left for the Navy, Monday, with a party in the gymnasium, Friday night.

After matching funny strips to determine partners, the faculty played intertube, sack and paper clipping races.

Refreshments of punch, cookies and sandwiches were served to Superintendent and Mrs. J. B. Speer, Principal and Mrs. J. F. Dickson, Mrs. Guy Tabor, Wesley Cox, Sewell Cox, Miss Rose Parsley, Miss Helen Whiteside, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sanders, Loyd Devin, Mrs. L. T. Barksdale, Mrs. M. S. Bishir, Mrs. T. W. Collins, Mrs. R. B. Davis, Mrs. Grace Harter, H. W. Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Walsh, Mr. Elliott and Miss Jo Wheeler.

FHT Girls Meet for First Red Cross Sewing Project

Seamstresses of the Canyon High Homemaking Club and sponsor, Miss Rose Parsley, desiring to help the local Red Cross, checked out material and made children's gowns from 7 until 10 o'clock Tuesday night.

The girls not only worked but also listened to radio programs.

"This work is in the experimental stage, but it may be that we shall work out a definite Red Cross project soon," said Miss Parsley.

Boys and girls in Canyon High School have been knitting the stores to find size five knitting needles and four-ply thread. It has become a hobby to knit in all the off-peak periods and at noon, since the nation needs sweaters and afghans for its armed forces.

Win Over Ags Gives Buffalo Big Lead in Circuit

In a game which offered one of the best first halves played in Burton Gym this year, the Buffalos won their sixth straight game in the Border Conference Thursday night when they defeated the New Mexico Aggies 78 to 37.

Even when Coach Al Baggett had the last of his substitutes in the lineup, the Buffs outscored their opponents. This occurred when the score was 70 to 30 with eight minutes remaining to be played. The final score was 78 to 37.

From the very beginning the game was West Texas State's. The Buffs led 10 to 0 after the first three minutes of play and when seven minutes had ticked by they led 17 to 3. At half-time they had a 42 to 20 advantage. Coach Baggett substituted freely throughout the remainder of the second half after letting the regulars get warmed up.

Price Brookfield was high point man with 18. Charles "Chat" Johnson, a substitute guard, came in for second honors with 12 points. Hoover and Melinder tied for scoring honors for the visitors with 11 points each.

Freshmen Take First Half of Amarillo League

The freshman basketball team outscored the Canadian River Gassers Tuesday night to climax the first half of the Amarillo Independent Basketball League with a 50 to 41 victory. The Freshmen, defeated only by the Coca Cola team this year, are the defending champions of the league.

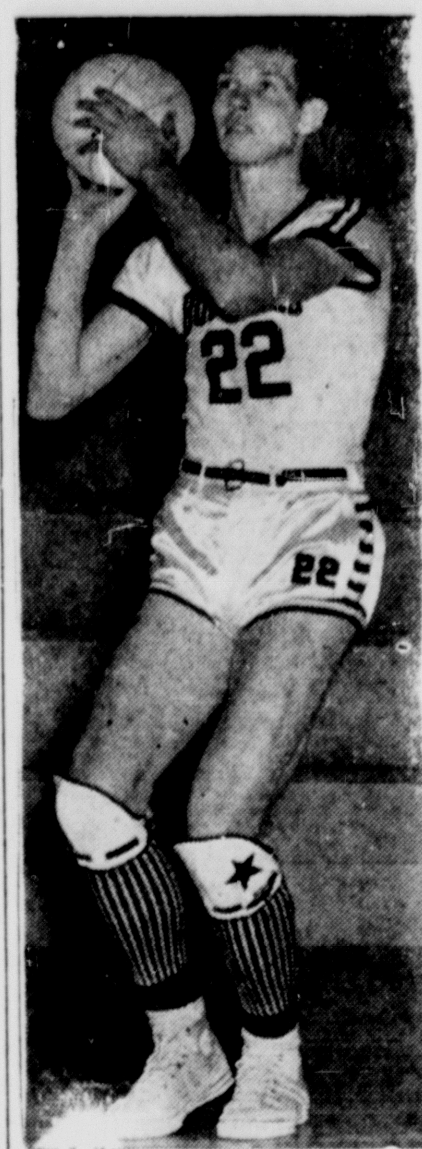

Despite the fact the Freshmen used eleven men in the initial clash, only five men—the starting crew—had a hand in the scoring. Forward Crews sank 18 points. Close behind was Coker, forward, who

Students Want Japan Bombed, Survey Shows

The great majority of American college students is ready for the U. S. air force to bomb Japanese cities, the latest national poll of Student Opinion Surveys of America reveals.

Much was said, before World War II earnestly got underway, about the advantages and disadvantages of dropping explosives over civilian population centers, but events of recent months and weeks have shown that bombing of cities has become an integral part of modern war strategy.

A few days before the Japanese bombed Manila after it had been declared an open city, Student Opinion Surveys completed a poll in which more than nine out of every ten students interviewed favored retaliation. No doubt feeling has flared still higher since the attack on the Philippine capital.

Of those who answered in the affirmative, it is important to point out, a little less than half specified that although they were in favor of bombing Japanese urban centers, our fliers should make it a point to strike at military objectives only. This is how opinion divides:

Approve	Disapprove	Undecided
63%	29%	8%

The problems involved in singling out military objectives, of the geographical difficulties of attacking the Japanese Islands from the air, are, of course, not taken up in this survey. All that is reflected is the general attitude of college students, many of whom, since the army and navy air corps prefer college-trained men, are the potential pilots who will participate in the raids already promised the Japanese.

It is of interest to note a slight but significant difference of opinion among college youth in the eastern and western parts of the country. Perhaps it is the propinquity of the Pacific conflict to westerners and realization of their own danger from the sky that makes more of them say, "Bomb Jap cities, but not indiscriminately—only military objectives."

"March of Time" Gives Air Raid Precautions

In their latest film entitled "When Air Raids Strike," the editors of the March of Time bring to the screens of U. S. theatres the story of one of the greatest feats of organization in modern times—the Air Raid Precautions (ARP) system of Great Britain.

The picture shows how U. S. citizens, adjusting themselves to the imminence of danger from air attack, are learning that total war demands of civilians the same discipline and alertness as that required of the military forces. From Britain's hard and bitter experience in educating her people to defend themselves during air attack, the March of Time shows, America is learning many valuable lessons.

In one particular important sequence, the March of Time shows exactly how to extinguish an incendiary bomb—one of the worst menaces of all, yet one of the easiest to fight if proper counter-measures are employed.

The March of Time outlines the tremendous program of public education which has been necessary in England and shows how hundreds of movie "shorts" produced by the Ministry of Public Information have helped Britons to correct the flaws in their civilian defense system.

Mr. T. A. Black, chairman of the local defense committee, states that those who have not registered for civilian defense work may do so at the Olympic Theater during the showing of "March of Time." Those who wish to know what to do to help are urged to see this interesting subject at the Olympic Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday.

Defense Program Takes First Spot In W. T. Courses

The tempo of college life moves at a faster pace in these days of crisis.

West Texas State College—and most of the Texas State colleges—will abandon the semester plan of two terms each long session and adopt the quarter system. There will be three quarters of twelve weeks in every 9-month session. There will be no change in the class periods, however.

The quarter plan will go into effect in the summer session opening June 3, with certain modifications to suit the requirements of summer students. The summer quarter will be split into two six-week terms. Classes will meet five times a week for six weeks, with Saturdays off. A normal load for summer students will be three courses for a total of nine quarter hours credit for each six weeks. An additional course may be taken by students of good standing. Classes carrying credit of one quarter hour may meet two days a week for six weeks or one day each week for twelve weeks. Classes will last one hour.

Under the new plan, superior students may graduate in two years and four months by being in college each quarter and making all their work. This shorter time is highly desirable in the national emergency because it will permit students to qualify more quickly for jobs in business and industry, teaching, and other professions, and to meet minimum requirements of the technical branches of the military services.

Government spokesmen are urging that high school students enter college immediately on graduation and expedite their progress toward degrees. The action by West Texas State was taken immediately after President J. A. Hill returned from conferences in Baltimore, Washington, D. C., and Austin.

Work next semester will continue as usual on the semester plan. Additional national defense courses will be offered. One of these will be a 3-semester hour course in photography (Journalism 211) arranged according to recommendations by the Army Air Corps.

Graduation, under the quarter plan, will require 180 quarter hours instead of 120 semester hours—the exact equivalent. A normal load for each 12-week quarter will be five classes carrying credit of three quarter hours, or a total of fifteen quarter hours. Superior students may take more hours.

In the reorganization, however, some 3-semester hour courses will be reduced to the equivalent of two (three quarter hours) and others will be raised to the equivalent of four (six quarter hours.) Programs will be based on the Fall, Winter, and Spring quarters. Students will suffer no losses in the change of systems.

Pierle Discussed Japanese Mind at Rotary Luncheon

Dr. Chester Pierle talked Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon on the development of the Japanese race and the oriental mind. Dr. Pierle was a teacher in China for many years and spent considerable time in Japan making a study of the people.

Japan was formerly a part of the mainland. Four different classes of people drifted into the territory and formed the foundation for the race as it exists today. It is the same general type as the Indians.

The first trade was with the Chinese, where the Japs adopted their philosophy and religion. The Japs attempted an invasion of China in early history. This invasion was repelled with disaster. The Japs adopted the policy of waiting and preparing themselves for a future war. Trade with China was cut off, and according to Chinese history the Japs were referred to as dwarfs and monkeys.

The Japs have always had a feeling of inferiority. The Emperor is only a figurehead of the government. The governing class has taken the lands of others, and while prosperous, they live frugally and willingly give everything to their government.

Numerous nations attempted to open trade with Japan, but the duration was not for long. In 1898 the Japs defeated the Chinese and Russian navies by surprise attacks, which has always been their policy.

In 1910 they started to expand by taking Korea.

All of the people live without luxuries. They take western customs only as they can use them. The Japs are not original.

They have a spy system which allows visitors to see only what they wish them to see. Visitors are never shown the great industries or the munition plants.

The Japs feel that the time is now ripe to show up the people who have looked down upon them for so long a time. They are obedient, war-like, and out to make a place for themselves in the world.

Dr. Roy Johnson was introduced as a new member of the club.

A. Garland Adair of Austin made a short talk praising the Panhandle-Plains Museum, which was the first museum to be erected in the South.

H. B. Fain of Amarillo; George Stallworth of Levelland; M. E. Cantrell of Canyon were visitors.

Mrs. Hud Prichard and Miss Irene Angel told of plans for the President's Diamond Jubilee Birthday party at Cousins Hall on January 30.

Dr. Freed Addresses Lions Club Thursday At Luncheon

Dr. Conrad W. Freed, addressing the Lions Club Thursday at noon, gave a resume of Will Durant's speech to the Knife and Fork Club on January 14.

Using the World Revolution as his subject, he outlined the movement as follows:

1. Military Revolution, which is brought about by the development of the airplane.
2. Economic Revolution, the change from personal to state and government control.
3. Political Revolution, the movement toward dictatorship.
4. Moral Revolution, representing the change in standards of behavior, namely that might is right.
5. Oriental Revolution, the attempt of people of the Orient to oust the white man from their sphere of commerce.

Only guest at the meeting was Stuart Condon, Jr.

Bride: I am sorry, Egbert dear, but that old butcher cheated us.

Egbert: How so, darling?

Bride: The old meanie sold me a turkey that didn't have any stuffing.
